CHRISTIAN ARABIC SERVICES

In September of 1982, Dr. Lewis Foster traveled to Egypt to recruit a man who could start a church planting movement in Egypt.

Safaa Fahmi was the man God led him to in Egypt. After getting a M.A. from Cincinnati University, Safaa and his wife, Mona, went home to change the face of Egypt.

Thirty-nine years later they now have 541 churches, eight seminary campuses, the first Arabic language commentary and much more. Dr. John Caldwell wrote an article for the Christian Standard entitled "Christian Arabic Services: The Best Kept Secret in the Restoration Movement".

Our goal is to make this modern day story of the Book of Acts known to all.

CHRISTIAN ARABIC SERVICES 2021 AND BEYOND

There are more than 93 million people living in Egypt, most of whom do not know Jesus as their Savior and Lord.

GOALS:

- + Triple our budget to $1 million a year
- + Have 1,000 churches
- + Expend our work in the other 22 Arabic speaking countries
- + Bring life and hope to 50,000 children who haven't heard about Jesus
- + Finish printing and paying for Arabic Commentaries (2,500 copies of each)
